GRAND CENTRAL

4-Star Hotel - Belfast

Opening in 2018, the Grand Central epitomizes the new, modern movement in historic Belfast. Located in the heart of Belfast city centre, the Grand Central beautifully fuses glamour and grandeur with a unique Belfast spirit. From the luxurious accents, modern conveniences to the bright, open spaces, the Grand Central offers guests the perfect respite after taking in the wonderful pubs, restaurants and shops of the nearby Titanic and Cathedral Quarters.

PORTSTEWART

Ranked 96th in the world by Golf Digest, the Strand course at Portstewart offers one of the best opening nine holes in golf. Set amidst gigantic and formidable sand dunes with panoramic views across the Atlantic, the course offers a challenging test to golfers of every skill level. The course has seen a number of changes since its 1894 inception from the likes of Willie Park Jr, Des Griffin and a number of architects but one thing has remained constant, keen shot-making is needed to navigate the course through its undulating dunes, run off bunkers and challenging greens.

ROYAL PORTRUSH

The 8th ranked Dunluce course at Royal Portrush is the only course in Ireland (and Northern Ireland) to have hosted the Open Championship, first in 1951 and then in 2019 with Shane Lowry prevailing as Champion Golfer. Originally designed by Old Tom Morris and later reworked by Colt, the course underwent another change by Martin Ebert in preparation for the 2019 Open. The changes introduced two new holes and rerouted the finishing holes for a more exciting & dramatic end to the round, fitting of a champion. Precision is key at Dunluce, especially off the tee, when navigating the beautifully daunting course.

ARDGLASS

Named as one of Matt Ginnella's (The Golf Channel) top hidden treasure golf courses, Ardglass Golf Club is one that boosts so much for visiting golfers. With a castle for a clubhouse (the world's oldest clubhouse) and views of the Irish Sea from all 18 holes, Ardglass is truly a course unlike any other. Golfers can expect a bit of a breeze, challenging tee shots and a course layout that tests their game in a delightful way.

SLIEVE DONARD

4-Star Hotel - Newcastle

Traditionally regarded as one of Ireland and Northern Ireland's best hotels, the incomparable Slieve Donard Resort & Spa may only be bested in beauty by the renowned golf course it sits adjacent to (Royal County Down) but is second to none in every measurable category. Designed with Victorian grandeur and luxury in mind, the Slieve Donard offers guests an award-winning spa, luxurious rooms with modern conveniences, exquisite dining experiences and incomparable views.

ROYAL COUNTY DOWN

The no 1 ranked course in the world, the Championship course at Royal County Down, is equally beautiful, challenging and unforgettable. The magnificent backdrop of the Mountains of Mourne, Dundrum Bay, purple heather and yellow gorse are almost distracting enough to distract you from the rolling, narrow fairways, bearded bunkers and blind tee shots that await you at every turn on the course. It's safe to say that you won't have a more fun challenge in golf than at Royal County Down, so much so that one visit just isn't nearly enough.
